

Virtues to Live by

I forgive

when

I accept God's forgiveness

I can forgive others.

I accept forgiveness from others

I can change after I have made a poor choice

I know that with God's love I can change.

I have the courage to give myself and others a new start.

I understand that saying sorry is one way of making amends.